THE PINES

T H E D E D I C A T I O N

Among our memories there will always be someone who holds a supreme place, and whose actions are indelibly impressed on the heart of every student of Thomasville High School.

Because you have worked so hard for each one of us individually . . .

Because you have been, and will continue to be, an inspiration to each one of us and a shining example of perfect friendship . . .

Because no task is too large or none too small for you to undertake . . .

Because of the many things that you have done for us, those who have come before us, and also for those who follow we, the Senior Class of 1954, dedicate our annual, THE PINES, as an expression of our thanks, to you—

CLASS MOTTO

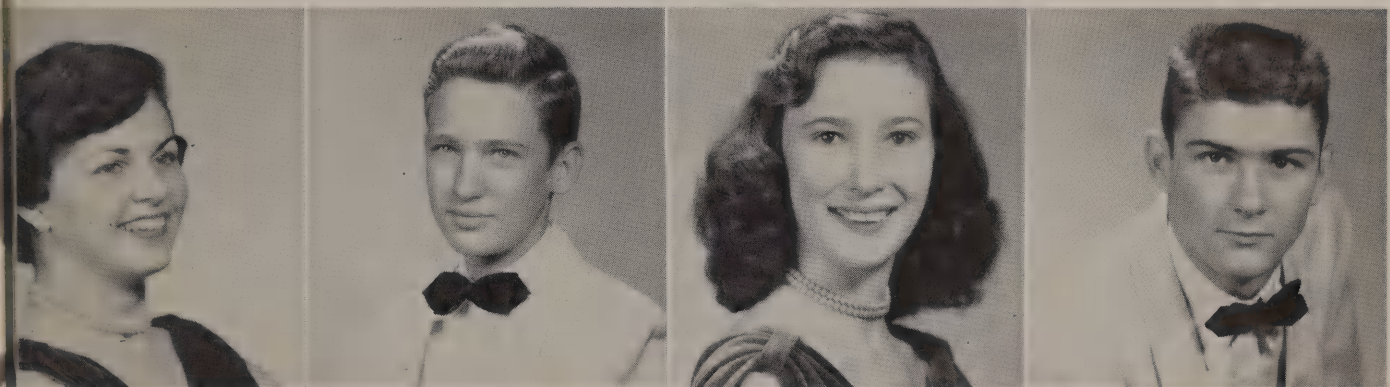

For yesterday is but a dream,
And to-morrow is only a vision;
But to-day well-lived makes every
Yesterday a dream of happiness,
And every to-morrow a vision of hope.
Look well therefore to this day!

From the Time You Say Goodbye

Parting is such sweet sorrow,
Why should it have to be?
But, when it comes tomorrow,
Will you remember me?
From the time we say goodbye
From the time we say cheerio,
Let us take a handshake true
For our journey as we go.
Keep a prayer within your heart,
That the time will surely fly,
To the day when we shall meet again,
From the time we say goodbye.

T.V. Script---June 4, 1974

Program: TODAY'S TOPS
Time: 8 p.m.
Sponsor: T.H.S. Production Company
Master of Ceremonies: Richard Dempsey
Background Music: "From the Time You Say Goodbye" (loud, then fade out)

Announcer: "Tonight, all you good people of the rocket chair circuit, T.H.S. Production Company, the tops in turning out great products, presents (Pause, roll of drums) . . .

TODAY'S TOPS

Tops in T.V. Entertainment!

And here to thrill you tonight with a special alumni show is that top star of television, wireless, cable, and rocket radio, your master of ceremonies, Richard Dempsey."

(Pause — Cymbal clash)

Dempsey: "Tonight TODAY'S TOP presents a special alumni show in honor of the guys and gals who graduated from Thomasville High School 20 years ago this very night. We'll take a look at each of those 76 graduates and see what these 20 years of freedom from T.H.S. have done for (or to) them."

The scene shifts to the famed Atomic Pile Hotel (formerly the Waldorf Astoria) in New York City. Hotel owner, manager, janitor, and chief cook, Hugh Gurley, announces that he has just engaged the well-known "Supersonic Six Swing Band" to furnish sound effects for dancing in the hotel's new Isotope Room. The band is composed of Jerry Word and his fiendish French horn; Teensie Bradshaw on the drums; Princess of the Piano, Maxine Bruce; Robert Hiers and his trained trombone; and "Slash of the Cymbals" (A. P.) Higginbotham. Directing the group is L. Gerald Goldstein, M.D., whose office hours are 11 a.m. to 11:05 a.m. every day except week days, holidays, and Sundays.

Singing on the popular "Stars of the Stone Age" program are Miss Carlene (Velvet Voice) Hamilton and the "Creepy Crooner," J. Channel Hicks. Hicks has taken leave of absence from his position as president of Hick's Garment Grocery to appear on the show with Miss Hamilton.

Secretaries Miriam Howell, Janet Hughes, and Nancy Ann Bacon were recently awarded new typewriter ribbons for their outstanding achievements in the field of business. Miss Howell was named "Speed Queen of the Year" after she broke the sound barrier in typing speed. Miss Hughes was voted "Secretary With the Most Beautiful Fingers," and Miss Bacon received top honors as the world's greatest shorthand expert.

A dispatch from darkest Africa reveals that Missionary Lonnie Whitehead and his assistant Barbara Stucki have escaped unarmed from the tribe of arm-eaters which captured them three years ago. This story was covered exclusively for the THOMASVILLE TRITE ENTERPRISE by Editor Barbara Kimbrough.

Miss Mary Oliver has recently opened a school for the training of women in the art of pleasing Marines. Miss Oliver and Miss Katherine Smith are the co-authors of the top best seller, HOW TO WIN SAILORS AND INTEREST MARINES.

Billy Arnold was honored recently for his latest invention—bricks that bounce. This invention is expected to revolutionize the brick-making industry.

Director Theron Holland of S.O.S. Pictures, Inc. announces that the idol of American girls, William Bibb, will star in "The Mended Heart" opposite glamorous Rita Rave (formerly Barbara Bulloch). "The Mended Heart" is a sequel to Bibb's last picture, "The Broken Heart."

Thomas Chastain and Kerry Estes, heads of the renown Chasestes Modeling Institute, have hired three new models for showing designer Max Melton's newest creations. The lucky ladies are famous cover girls Dorothy Bradford, Anne Cooper, and Sylvia Dugger.

Miss Pearlmae Odom, manufacturer of the famous Odom Cheese (the cheese that molds in your mouth) has added two specialists to her staff. They are Ronald Russell, who will officiate in the capacity of cow keeper, and William J. Howell, who will test every drop of cream that goes into the cheese.

Miss Gayle Arline has just completed her newest book, HOW TO CATCH A MAN IN TEN EASY STRIDES AND A ROPE. Field research for the publication was carried on by Miss Arline's experienced assistant and technical adviser, Alma Renfro.

Keith Russell has been cleaning up on the New York Stock Exchange recently. He was employed last month as chief assistant to the assistant of the assistant janitor.

President of the United States Bobby Crawford has just returned to Washington after a week's practice golfing on the Glen Arven course in preparation for his world-shaking match with Russia's premier, Ivan Stalinskoff.

Bruce Dillard and Jimmy Gunter have developed a sensational new hair tonic guaranteed not to tickle the scalp. Mr. Dillard is famous for his pickles, "Dilled the Dillard way." He has incorporated some of his fine pickle juice into the making of Gunter's hair tonic.

Critics are raving over the debut of Miss Connie Miller last night in Norris Hall (changed from Carnegie Hall after being completely renovated by multi-millionaire oil tycoon, J. Carlton Norris.) In addition to her piano concert, Miss Miller charmed her audience with an invigorating rendition of the Charleston during intermission.

Scientist Walter Godwin is winner of the 1974 No Bell prize for his discovery that nitric acid will remove freckles. Godwin was assisted in his research by Professor James McKinnon of Way Below Normal College.

Tonight marks the opening of Harry Butler's ultra-modern club--Butler's Beebop Barn. Featured in the floor show are those "Daring Darlings of the Dance" Ann Gill, Carolyn Holton, and Linda Liefeld. Misses Eleanor "Prissy" Neel and Gwen "Fannie" Willis, owners of the Prissy-Fannie Night Spot, are greatly worried over the competition Butler's Club may be for their business.

Carl Edwards will appear in Thomasville next week with his famed automobile exhibit, "Edwards' Mangled Motor Cars." Edwards began his collection while a student at Thomasville High School.

Mr. Alfred Hays and his wife have just returned from a trip to Venus where they spent two weeks as guests of Coach William "Buzzy" Watkins of the Venus Vampires. Hays was summoned because of his astounding knowledge of football to assist Coach Watkins as his team prepared for the annual Galaxy Gridiron Classic held in May. The Vampires defeated Coach Ernest Monk's Mars Monstrosities by a score of 777 to 776.

Miss Ray Ann White was voted "Dental Assistant of the Year" after her heroic rescue of Miss Yvonne Bond's last original tooth from a horrible fate in the sterilizer. Miss White was awarded a bronze replica of the Bond tooth.

Miss Ruth Singletary has just been named "Miss Little-Bit of 1974." Miss Singletary returned today from Paris, where she represented the United States in the contest to choose the world's shortest girl.

Miss Pat Parker, owner of the Park 'Er Here Parking Lot, was acclaimed Thomasville's most outstanding citizen for her fine work in helping to relieve the parking problem behind Terry's Drug Store. Manager Melton Hobbs reported that Miss Parker has reserved 500 spaces of her 110,000 car lot for use of Terry's patrons only.

Misses Joyce Ann NeSmith and Joyce Thomas of the J. and J. Transportation Company announce that summer rates to the planets have been reduced from $1.99 to $1.98 per light-year traveled.

The unemployment rate has jumped alarmingly as a result of Carol Readling's new hair cut. (1 $\frac{7}{8}$ inches all over). Miss Readling formerly employed a 5,171,396-member staff to manage her five-mile tresses. James Horne, Miss Readling's financier, stated that he has purchased the hair and resigned his position to enter the rope-making industry.

After much tedious research, the celebrated explorers, Jimmy Jackson and Jack Willis, have at last proved their theory that vegetation does exist in parts of the Gobi Desert.

A rising light in the field of politics is Mary Etta Clark, who is in the race for the Georgia senatorship. Miss Clark's campaign is in the capable hands of Miss Betty Heisler, who is famous for her sound political advice.

Socialite Patsy Kelly left today for Paris, where she will spend several days shopping. Miss Kelly's forthcoming marriage to the Duke of Idleness promises to be the most elaborate affair of the social season.

Marie Law Clark and Marilyn McGrotha, main supporters of the Senate proposal to move the capital of Georgia from Atlanta to the much larger and more progressive city of Boston, left the capital yesterday for a short visit with their families.

The Thomasville Men's Sewing Circle met today at the home of its president, Warren Stevens. Featured on the program was General Admiral C. Richard Neely, graduate of West Point and Annapolis, who gave a lecture on the making of pup tents from old sails.

Miss Elizabeth Vrackas is spending several months with former classmates, Willie Mae Palmer and Ronell Whidden, who live atop Mt. Everest. Doctors advised Miss Vrackas that the climate will be beneficial to her health.

Miss Mary Alice Clark has just developed a sure cure for corns. On sale at all hardware stores, "Clark's Corn Cushions" come in large, small, and pin-point sizes.

Miss Joan Holloway has just opened her fifty-fourth racing track for dogs, horses, and cows. Miss Holloway is the owner and manager of Holloway's Home for Aged Horses.

Fabric designer Carol Johnston will be in Thomasville this week to show the latest trends in dress fabrics. Miss Johnston is on her way to Barwick for the international festival of fabrics.

Announcer: "And thus have passed twenty years in the lives of 76 graduates of Thomasville High School. We have caught a glimpse of their successes and failures, and have seen how knowledge gained at T.H.S. helped them in the climb to fame and fortune. Now we leave these graduates recalling fond memories of pleasant high school days and dreaming golden dreams of the future. This is T.H.S. T.V."

Background Music: "From the Time You Say Goodbye" (loud, then fade out).

groups, typing absence list every day, doing stenographic work (for a small fee!) for business men—and with it all, keeping up with regularly assigned work and wearing a smile at all times. The boys are the bookkeepers for the school. They keep records, balance books, and make bank deposits for several organizations.

Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the 1954 Senior Class of Thomasville High School, being of sound mind and sturdy limb do hereby demand that the following terms be met before this Last Will and Testament goes into effect:

1. That we be thought of with respect and discrimination at all times.

2. That our deeds be considered as the highest possible ambitions ever attempted at Thomasville High School.

BILLY BIBB (finally graduating after all these years) leaves his love for school to ASHBURN SEARCY, who never makes below an A.

ANN GILL leaves her perfect attendance record to SIMON HOLMAN and CHARLES NEWELL, who never miss a day.

TAMLIN BELLAMY is the lucky girl who gets all the CAMPUS COMMENTATOR worries from BARBARA KIMBROUGH.

LINDA LIEFELD and BARBARA BULLOCH leave their love for "Hilltop," "Terry's," and "men in general" to CHARLOTTE BROOKS and ANN CLARK.

With hopes of a winning team next year, "BUZZY" WATKINS and ALFRED HAYS leave MARION BUSH and "ANIMAL" O'QUINN the guardianship of the football team.

WALTER GODWIN wills his trials in Spanish class to GEORGE WASHINGTON and DEAN WILLIAMS, who were probably smart enough not to take the stuff in the first place.

ANNE COOPER'S peroxidized locks go to ANN MARIE HILL, who has quite a streak of her own.

"DOC" CHASTAIN leaves his bumps and bruises on the gridiron to P. W. BRYAN, who only gets bruised from broken hearts.

"TEENSIE" BRADSHAW gladly gives the Sub Deb headaches to CAROL HASTY and EMILY HOUSE.

HARRY BUTLER and ERNEST MONK leave their talks in the hall during little recess to HEETH VARNEDOE.

CAROL "MOUTH" READING leaves her love for hollerin' at football games to DERYL PARKER, daring her to be louder.

CARLTON NORRIS bequeaths his big feet to JAMES BRASWELL with hopes that he, too, can leave footprints in the halls of T.H.S.

AUGUSTA MITCHELL is the recipient of CONNIE MILLER'S megaphone and personal essay, "Memoirs of a Cheerleader."

JIMMY JACKSON'S towel and water buckets go to BUDDY BRACEY and MICHAEL SINGLETARY so that the football team can be kept in shape.

KATHERINE SMITH leaves her reserved parking place in front of the school to BONNIE GUTHRIE and BETTY WALDEN so that they won't have to worry with the parking problem.

JERRY WORD'S tattered copy of TEN EASY WAYS TO LEAD A BAND goes to MARY ALICE BOOKER and FRANCES AYCOCK to be divided between them.

HARVEY DURHAM receives CHARLES NEELY'S Hi-Y gavel with hopes that he can "keep 'em in order."

MARILYN McGROTHA bequeaths her unique walk to LINDA MAY. (That ought to be good!)

JIMMY GUNTER leaves to LESTER WEBB the scratching-off gears which were willed to him last year.

JANET HUGHES leaves her duties as secretary of the Tri-Hi-Y to MARGARET FORTNEY. (Lucky girl!)

JAMES HORNE'S cute smile goes to JOE CLEMENTS so that he can have two.

By proxy of the Senior Class I, MARY OLIVER, leave to the Junior Class complete control of that property situated between Glenwood, Jackson, and Washington streets.

BOBBY CRAWFORD leaves his ability to acquire offices in clubs and organizations to BOBBY RUSSELL, who is already off to a good start.

MIRIAM HOWELL passes her "theory on marriage" on to JEANETTE BRINSON.

CLARENCE VICK will be grateful to learn that he has received DICKY DEMPSEY'S flair for conversation.

YVONNE BOND leaves her slow Southern voice to HOLLY HERTZBERG with hopes that she can "keep 'em drawlin'."

MARY ETTA CLARK, JOAN HOLLOWAY, and RONELL WHIDDEN leave their addresses to EDWIN HOLTON, EUGENE DAVIS, and JAMES TILLEY so that they can keep in touch with each other next year.

GEORGE MAYO and WAYNE GLENN receive from LAWRENCE GOLDSTEIN two copies of his famous book, WIMMIN', AND MY WAY WITH 'EM.

GWEN WILLIS'S ability to get out-of-town boy friends is passed on to BONNIE KIRBERG, who has quite an ability of her own.

CHAN HICKS, THERON HOLLAND, and KEITH RUSSELL leave their "way with Mrs. Mac" to RANDALL LEVAR, GEORGE MATHES, and JACK DIXON.

ALMA RENFROE leaves the girls' basketball team to ROSALYN SANDERS, ELAINE HIERS, and ANNE WILLIAMS.

HUGH GURLEY'S ability to keep everybody laughing goes to LARRY HICKS.

JACK WILLIS, MAX MELTON, and JACKIE HOWELL leave their F's in English to JAMES BRYANT, WILLIAM BARRETT, and RODNEY ALLIGOOD, who have enough trouble with their own F's.

JAMES McKINNON reluctantly lets JIMMY REID and CLYDE BARNES have his dreams of boats and fish during geometry class.

RONALD RUSSELL and BILLY ARNOLD will gladly give JOYCE CURRY and MARJORIE COLLINS a few inches to add to their height while ALLEN HIGGINBOTHAM will gladly do the same for LEON FUTCH.

CARL EDWARDS'S troubles with his hot rod go to RAMSEY ROCKEL.

CLARENCE FLOYD and DONALD MARTIN are the lucky recipients of GAYLE ARLINE'S vocabulary. Maybe they will be able to impress Mrs. McRae.

NANCY ANN BACON leaves her long curly locks to BETTY SUE PHILLIPS. They could come in handy on cold winter mornings.

KERRY ESTES wills to LARRY WALKER his talent of inventing excuses to get out of C period.

BRUCE DILLARD leaves his dark hair and complexion to BOBBY ACKERMAN and DOUGLAS O'QUINN, whose fair complexions have that "Angel Face" look.

LONNIE WHITEHEAD bequeaths his knowledge of geometry (which ain't much) to PAUL DAVIS, who could probably do better without it.

MAXINE BRUCE, CARLENE HAMILTON, and JOYCE ANN NESMITH will their musical talent to BARBARA HARRISON, ELIZABETH DRIVER, and JOY MATTHEWS.

PATSY KELLY'S endless supply of jokes is passed on to BOB CAUTHEN so that his old ones can finally be replaced.

BARBARA STUCKI, PAT PARKER, WILLIE MAE PALMER, PEARLIE MAE ODOM, DOROTHY BRADFORD, and SYLVIA DUGGER

leave their friendly smiles and gracious manners to OCENA BROWN, FAYE FLOYD, EDNA GRAVES, ELOISE LUKE, LOUISE CONE, JEANETTE WILLIAMS, and DOROTHY ALLEN.

MARIE CLARK gives SUZANNE WITTER, JOYCE KNOWLES, and JACKIE POWELL her secrets concerning her latest book, HOW I GOT MY MAN.

To KATHY TYLER and MOZELL PHELPS goes RUTH SINGLETARY'S fondness for the library.

JANE McLEOD and FAYE AKRIDGE inherit from BETTY HEISLER her willingness to cooperate.

ROBERT HIERS leaves his camera and flash bulbs to CARLTON BRACEWELL and RANDALL DOLLAR, who probably don't even know what they are for.

MARY ALICE CLARK leaves her specially made "comb for long hair" to ALICE McCauley.

MELTON HOBBS bequeaths his fond memories of twelve years of school to FLOYD McKNIGHT, WILBUR SADLER, and BENNY THORNHILL.

RAY ANN WHITE wills her white uniform to TERRY BLOW, who can always use an extra one.

"SISSY" NEEL and CAROLYN HOLTON leave all their lost books and stuff to JANIS HORNE and DORIS GRIFFIN, if they don't mind looking for them.

JOYCE THOMAS and THELMA BECKWITH give their friendship to sisters MARGARET and WILLIE JANE ROLLINS, who couldn't be any friendlier to each other than they are now.

WARREN STEVENS' thesis on HOW TO GET HANDSOME AND STAY THAT WAY is to be divided among CHARLES BOND, JACK KING, and KENNETH SINGLETARY.

HELEN SINGLETARY will receive one of those famous sales talks from ELIZABETH VRACKAS.

CAROL JOHNSTON leaves her quietness to SHIRLEY DUNCAN, HAZEL GILBERT, and MARY FRANCES STRICKLAND, who really don't need it.

And lastly, we, the seniors, leave to the juniors their turn to be the "big dogs" on the next show. Time's running out—so goodbye and good luck!

Signed, sealed, and delivered this 4th day of June, 1954.

Mary Oliver

Alma Mater

Dear Alma Mater, hail to thee!
Though from these honored halls
We soon must turn reluctant feet
Where'er our fortune calls,
Where'er our fortune calls.
Yet from thy portals we will bear
The imprint of thy precepts fair.
The lofty beacon of thy truth
Will guide the steps of youth.

Beneath the shelter of the pines
Now ends the final year
Be ours the palms, the glory thine,
O hallowed Mother, dear,
O hallowed Mother, dear.
So comrades all clasp well each hand
And let the welkin slowly ring,
The royal clan, a loyal band.
Thy praises ever sing!

TUNE IN JUNE 4, for final outcome.

ELEMENTS

There are three elements which figure prominently in the lives of all of us:

RELIGION—The inside man, the spiritual center within the heart and soul of the individual which is strictly personal.

SOCIAL —Relationship to our fellowmen, involving a complex problem of living with others and the application of the Golden Rule.

BUSINESS—Our means of making a living, managing finance and self-reliance and self-sustenance.

The Commercial Bank is deeply interested in well balanced people who combine the above elements into a wholesome living standard.

Our business, of course, largely has to be concerned about business and finance, but we sincerely value the importance of religious and social attitudes.
